In the office, each color has its own language, it will convey to your colleagues and customers a certain psychological message.

Harmonious color makes a positive, clear, relaxed, happy; discordant colors on the contrary, it makes people feel negative, depression, heavy fatigue.

How to choose office furniture color? How office furniture with the color? HORIZON is here to tell you the color matching techniques:

Black gives the feeling of loneliness, but also there is a noble and dignified; Brown makes people feel old-fashioned, but different concentrations of the old Brown has not dull, but also to produce a sort of elegance; Red and pink are too provocative, if match up with cool and quiet tune, can show the young and lively; The white-yellowish brown is too plain, if hold hands with the happy warm color scheme, it easy to reveal their elegant;

Lavender with sky blue gives a feeling of quiet & calm; People feel bright with magenta & sapphire blue; Purple with pale moon white look elegant Pink White blending to convey the youthful spirit; Dark brown with yellow can make you look more mature; Light gray with a jet black look solemn; Scarlet with black can attract each other's sight;

Darkish green with yellowish brown is the most natural match La serene blue with light blue make people feel at ease; As for yellow-card & inkiness, then give people jumpily beauty. In short, good color, even if the office where the limited scope of each site, fresh feeling in every corner.

HORIZON in office furniture design, a wide range of surface coatings of color to choose from, even on the surface of the mechanism can not the same, matte, light, and with the lines, and with the lines, and to provide customers an optimize office space, bringing the feeling of a variety of office atmosphere.
